intelligent technical recruitment solutions

public sector

Atlans has over 25 years' experience of delivering cost effective professional resourcing solutions to all areas of the public sector. Being staffed by professional recruitment consultants, we have a real understanding of the unique requirements and needs of this key sector and maintain an extensive pool of candidates covering a wide range of disciplines. From support staff to experienced senior consultants, and everything in-between, our service is further enhanced by a structured use of internet based candidate search where required. Atlans at present has over 400 contractors and consultants working on client sites.

Atlans has developed a portfolio of services for the many Client Functional areas of the Public Sector including contract and permanent recruitment, interim management and executive search.

Our clients benefit from our innovative tailored approach that is both cost effective and process efficient, ensuring the delivery of solutions to the customer is both timely and quality assured.

Atlans currently has consultants working through the Buying Solutions framework as well as other direct government department agency frameworks.

Our local government clients include:

- > North Somerset Council
- > London Borough of Waltham Forest
- > Essex CC
- > Solihull BC
- > Cheshire CC
- > Leeds CC.

Other public sector clients include:

- > The Office of National Statistics
- > The Department of Health
- > The Foreign & Commonwealth Office
- > The Highways Agency
- > HM Prison Service.

Atlans is able to offer nationwide coverage.
